Security Savings Pays 3% Dividend

The Board of Directors of Security Savings and Loan Association voted to pay a semi-annual dividend at the rate of 3% per annum for the six months' period ending December 31, 1952, according to announcement made today by W. J. Bowman, president of the association.

"We have been paying 3% to our shareholders since July 1, 1947, and have again fixed a 3% rate for the first six months' period of 1953," Bowman said.

It was further announced that Leonard R. Cardozo and Frank A. Brush were both elected vice-presidents of the association by the board of directors at its December meeting.

"Security Savings, with offices in Richmond, Albany and Martinez, has experienced a very fine growth in both savings accounts and home loans during 1952, and all indications for 1953 are extremely encouraging for expansion," Bowman said.

Christmas Is What You Make It!

Right after Thanksgiving it starts . . . that special frenzy and contagion in the air that means Christmas! You catch it in the snap of your step, the good-natured jostling on the street, the bursting friendliness everywhere.

You hadn't planned to do much ... a few scattered greens over the mantle ... when suddenly you're caught! You're in it with your own two hands, remembering what each year we all forget, that age old truth, "Christmas is what you make it."

This year make it out of something simple . . . like a few spools of picture wire, Tide, and plastic products found in every laundry room - detergents and plastic starch! From these, plus a dash of ingenuity, Tide Washing Clinic created the unusual Christmas ornaments below. They are wire silhouettes that look like they've been caught in a snow storm!

Why not get your family together, pool your imaginations and do likewise? It's fun! It's easy! Just twist

What are little angels made of? Not sugar and spice, but of all things ... picture wire, Tide, and plastic starch! These heavenly pin-ups, light as a butterfly's kiss, are Yule-Tide enchantment. Hang them from the Christmas tree bough, the fireside mantel, the wreath on the door.

the wire into amusing shapes (a small piece will help here) and then coat the silhouettes with Yule-Tide mix and hang on the tree. The mix is a marshmallow-like batter made from Tide and plastic starch.
Mix a cup of Tide with four TBSP of starch and whip till it's fluffy.
Apply with ordinary table knife.
When thoroughly dry, hang on the tree. FMS

Four-to-six-year-olds love being make-believe doctors and nurses ... and as they play, they learn all about health and hygiene with these Kidd-E-Doctor and Kidd-E-Nurse kits—attractive satchels containing sterilized bandages and dressings, genuine medical products, and realistic reproductions of professional instruments and accessories.

HATBORO, PA.—Experts in child development reveal that toys are as important to a child's all-round growth and well being as proper food and clothing. So the toy manufacturers of America will ensure that Santa's sack this year is filled with toys that will bring lasting benefits as well as immediate delight to children who receive them.

The best American-made toys are now designed to encourage active imaginative play—which goes hand in hand with a healthy well-balanced childhood—and to satisfy the varied interests of children at different age levels.

The baby under two years, for example, needs brightly colored, simple toys with interesting shapes and textures, but children who are ready for nursery school and kindergarten are ready for toys that permit them to imitate and dramatize events in the world around them.

Imaginative four-to-six-year-olds never tire of dramatic play with authentic "props" and the favorite situations are housekeeping, playing school, caring for "doll" babies and playing doctor and nurse. The Doll-E-Feeder, a realistic 32-piece set that provides everything for making and feeding dolly's formula, would seem to be a perfect toy for little girls of this age who love to imitate all of mother's activities with their doll companions.

Youngsters of kindergarten age will also profit from work-play toys like the Doll-E-DoDish, which reproduce mother's kitchen dishwashing utensils and nationally-known cleaning products in authentic miniature detail. And for the young "doctor" or "nurse" the realistic Kidd-E-Doctor and Kidd-E-Nurse kits, colorful satchels containing a wondrous assortment of authentic medical gear, are ideally appropriate.

American toy manufacturing has made great progress in recent years through cooperation with child-study authorities. AMSCO toys and many other modern American-made toys stimulate and challenge the child toward further experimentation and discovery, thereby helping him towards the next stage of his growth.

According to Dr. Grace Langdon, noted authority on child development "Toys are the tools of play—and play is a significant part of a child's daily living." The right toys satisfy the interests characteristic of each age level and, by directing energy into constructive channels, provide a starting point for growth through play.

CHRISTMAS CARDS JOURNEY BACK TO BETHLEHEM

1952 Christmas cards are rich in tradition. They symbolize centuries of man's faith.

THE miracle of Christmas, its humble origin in Bethlehem, and its universal reverence today, is dramatically portrayed on this year's colorful Christmas greeting cards.

Many of the new designs were inspired by familiar Biblical passages. Radiant scenes of the Nativity are especially popular. Guardian angels attend the infant Jesus. Humble shepherds again worship at the manger.

And on one very attractive card the Three Wise Men bring their symbolic gifts to the Christ Child. Gold to acknowledge His worldly reign; frankincense as a token of the reverence due Him; and myrrh with its bitter-sweet scent to prophesy sadness.

There is, in fact, a Christmas card to re-tell each event in sequence—from the time Mary and Joseph were turned away at the inn, until the Holy Family made their memorable flight into Egypt.

Our modern attitude toward this holy season is another popular theme. Whimsical little cherubs form celestial symphonies, or come to earth to hang holly wreaths and decorate fabulous Christmas trees.

Churchgoers attend Christmas services, and surplined choirs sing joyous hymns on many other handsome creations. There are distinctive cut-out cards, too, resembling stained-glass church windows and the Holy Bible.

In recent years, the number of these truly reverent greetings has greatly increased. It indicates a growing awareness that Christmas is the greatest of all religious occasions—and that our Christmas greetings should convey the true significance of all that Christmas means.

Say "Christmas" to your youngsters and see the big smiles, the vision of dreams-come-true in their eyes! Say "Let's decorate for Christmas" and see how they'll love you for letting them realize one dream so quickly—a chance to show their abilities, a chance to participate in an important family project. Give them a bowlful of lovely blue suds made from bead-bluing and your young fry will be all set to make the house gay with a merry-blue that blends with ANY other color.

Here two young artists are putting the finishing touches on a picture window. Sister is painting the "welcome" candle with tiny bouquets of holly and little brother is fingerpainting his version of Santa and the reindeer so that passers-by on the street will enjoy the gay silhouette. The formula for the easy to use, easy to remove blue suds they're using is simple, the ingredients readily available: Just take a cup of bluing beads and mix with a quarter cup water to a soft foamy suds. Use a paint brush and lightly touch the tips of any Christmas greens for a bright, jeweled effect. Decorate colored or white candles to suit your holiday theme. Touch up old tree ornaments, dip strings of popped corn... you'll think of dozens of ways to use this versatile blue!

For a special sparkle, sprinkle on bright silver or gold dust from the dime store while the "paint" is still wet. Bluing mixture left over? Give it a chance to do the work for which it was originally intended—add it to the hot wash water next wash day. Once you have made this a habit, you will be as happy about the whiteness and brightness of your clothes, as all the family will be over the beauty of these same bluing beads in making novel Christmas decorations!

This is a True Case History

I SAVED
$116.86
ON THE CAR
I BOUGHT

"I made over a 60% down payment on a late-model car. I was told it would cost me $257.60 to insure the car and finance the balance of $700.00. Lucky for me I'd talked to a State Farm agent first, because I used the Bank Plan instead and paid an insurance and financing charge of only $140.74. I saved $116.86." (One of many actual cases.)

Many People Assume Finance Rates Are Standard
THEY ARE NOT!

The Bank Plan offers you two proven money-saving methods. Low-cost financing through a nearby bank and low-cost preferred-risk insurance rates. Get your own figures on the cost of the car you want and COMPARE them with Bank Plan costs FIRST! Call or see your State Farm agent BEFORE you buy.
